Chapter 1 by Alice Marie Bride

Disclaimer: The character Corvo Attano originates from the game, Dishonored. WARNING: Mild language but excessive violence.

Agents Log #1

My name, Is Attano, Corvo. I am the aid to the empress, and her daughter, Emily. I am required to keep an Agent's log- jotted notes about our missions and stuff I presume. I don't think I would really need to keep this on hand too often- things are slow here. I watch the empress and her daughter play in the courtyard overlooking the harbor. It reeked of fish, but I suppose that's an appealing scent when it brings in so much money. The guards are fat with inactivity, passing a lazy eye over the entryway. It's an unreal sense of security. things like this should be watched closely.

Agent's Log #2

It has been a full fortnight, and there hasn't been the slightest disturbance. It's rather odd, not even mischievous boys were picking at the guards. What kind of act or law has possibly brought my internal skeleto... oh, never mind. See more of Story Wars

Maybe I was wrong. There still hasn't been a crime committed, and it's been a month after I returned and received this Agent's Log. I had a few drinks with the empress' personal healer. The drink tasted a bit funny, but I just assume it was because it had been a long time since I had drank any sort of alcohol. My mind seems a bit fuzzy even now though, and I feel safer. I feel heavy limbed, but I welcome it. Maybe it really is safe here.
